FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Deuteronomy 30:10-14 God's law is planted in our hearts.
Psalm 69 "Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live."
Or Psalm 19 "Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life."
Colossians 1:15-20 In the cross all creation is united in Christ.
Luke 10:25-37 Even the stranger is to be loved as a neighbor.

The scriptures challenge us to examine the world around us to discover just who our neighbors are. The law of love is not something that is beyond our reach. As believers, this law is planted within us. Let us find in today's scriptures the inspiration and strength we need to be Christ for one another.

THE MASS IS CHANGING - HOW AND WHY

Common questions asked about the new translation of the Latin texts of the Mass.

What is the status of the translation now?

The bishops have reviewed the segments of the new translation, and the matter is now in Rome's hand. The Congregation for Divine Worship has given its approval to the new translation of the "ordinary" of the Mass – that is, the prayers that form a regular part of the celebration, such as the introductory and concluding rites, the Creed, and the Eucharistic Prayers. Now the Congregation is examining what is called the "Proper" of the Mass, those parts that change based on the liturgical day, such as major feasts and the celebration of particular saints' days.

When will the new translation go into effect?

This has not yet been decided. The date may be announced when the Holy See gives final approval to the remaining parts of the translation. Once approval is given, a period will follow to allow publishers to produce new editions of the Roman Missal and to educate the clergy and the faithful about the new translation. Publishers have requested at least a year to do their work. It has been suggested that the beginning of the liturgical year-Advent- would be appropriate time for the new translation to go into effect. Considering these factors, we may speculate that Advent 2011 is a possible date, but we will have to wait and see.

FAREWELL TO OUR SEMINARIAN

The weeks have flown by since the Archdiocese has entrusted us with Matthew MacDonald. He has been a blessing to the parish and the rectory. We pray that Matthew enjoys the rest of his summer and that he indeed does rest. We also pray and need to pray that Matthew persists in the calling he has received by God to the Sacred Priesthood of Jesus Christ. God willing he will be ordained in three years. Through the intercession of Saint Matthew and with the assistance of our prayers may Matthew become a priest.

MARBLE FLOOR

We would like to thank those who have sent in their donations for the marble floor. The gentleman from the Tile Manufacturer was here last week and has measured the area for the new floor. The installation will take place in the fall.
